The Battle of To-Day.

The great conflict of the 8th of November is second in importance to no event of our time. To-day the irrepressible conflict culminates at the polls, and the millions of freemen who constitute and govern the nation, through all the loyal States, are to exercise their electoral franchise, to determine a question second to no other that has ever absorbed and agitated the public mind.

On no other spot of earth is the sublime spectacle visible of an educated and enlightened people silently, but effectively, controlling the fate of a nation, and wielding its destinies at the ballot-box, where the freeman's vote—

"A weapon that comes down as still
As snow flakes fall upon the sod,
And executes the freeman's will
As lightning does the will of God."

As a people, we are sometimes wrong; but our errors are ever rectified in the course of time by the irrepressible force of public opinion manifested in the exercise of this freeman's prerogative.

We have no fears of the result to-day. The people who have borne for over three years the horrors of civil war, who sent their sons, their fathers and their husbands to the battle-field, and have so often seen the idols of their hearts—the loved ones of the fireside circle offered up as bloody sacrifices on the altar of their country, in the struggle to maintain nationality and civil liberty against the hellish designs of slavery and rebellion, will never consent to a contemptible peace, to a half-hearted war policy, or to a vacillating President.

The only way to secure peace that shall be both permanent and compatible with national honor, is by subduing the rebellion, annihilating the cause that produced it, and thus placing on the records of the nineteenth century the fact that our Union cannot be dissolved at the will of traitors, and that our national honor is safe in the keeping of the American people.

Let every man who votes to-day, remember that the fate of a nation rests with its people, and let him solemnly act as if the result remained with him.

The McClellan war cry is peace, and the frantic howl that latter day Democracy raises against the Union party and our noble President is that we favor the abolition of slavery, and that we have sanctioned arbitrary arrests and suppression of the press.

Our columns have many times shown the eagerness with which the rebellion watches this election, and that all its hopes are staked upon this issue.

Is it not significant enough that treason makes its last effort to keep alive until its Northern ally has passed the ordeal of November? Is it not a glaring fact, that every Federal victory most effectually destroys the hopes of McClellan Democracy? What proposal for peace has the South ever made? None; but it stands on record that they declare they will accept no peace unaccompanied with disunion and Southern independence. They have repeatedly declared that with blank paper placed before them, and power to dictate terms, they will never agree to reconstruction.

Under these circumstances, this cry of peace is merely submission to Southern rule; it can only be accomplished by surrendering the honor of the Union into the guardianship of traitors, and if successful, will be followed by a base and humiliating effort to crawl under the aegis of Southern institutions to bask in the sunshine of treason and its chivalry.

Not a thousand times better to "to fight it out" we have not sacrificed so many hecatombs of noble lives to renounce our freedom in the end.

Mr. Lincoln himself, in his letter to Mr. Conkling, answers the cry of "abolition" in the best manner, showing that the Emancipation Proclamation was a justifiable and necessary war measure, and consistent with the Constitution. It is only those who value slavery more than freedom that can object to the abolition of the cause of the war, at least where it stands arrayed against the Government and threatening the life of the Nation as it does to-day.

We have shown you that General Jackson did quite as arbitrary acts as Lincoln has done, and that Democracy sustained and endorsed him in so doing; and the same abuse that is now so freely bestowed upon President Lincoln, was as readily meted out to him when he became a popular candidate for the Presidency.

History holds his honored name enshrined with that of Washington and when we have passed to our fathers, a third will be added, and the hearts of coming unborn millions will thrill with patriotic pride, and the name of Lincoln will be honored, immortalized by sterling worth, when the name of his detractors shall live in infamy or be buried in oblivion.

THE TORN OWN FLAG.—Some [illegible] disguised person last night tore down the American Flag that was suspended across the street from the McClellan Club Room on Front Street.

The act was a despicable one, whoever did it, and however much we may differ with our fellow citizens of principles from our fellow citizens who belong to the McClellan Club. We deprecate any infringement upon their rights in this matter or in any other.

We have only to say that we sincerely hope the perpetrator of the dastardly act may be discovered and have meted out to him his just deserts, and that whoever he is he will not vote the Union ticket.

TURN OUT! TURN OUT! Let no Union man remain at home to-day, but go out to exercise his privilege of citizenship at the polls. Let every true lover of his country and its institutions be on hand to vote for the Union candidates for President and Vice-President—Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson.

LAST EVENING'S GRAND RALLY.—At six o'clock last evening the crowd of Union men rallied at the Pioneer, and the Democratic McClellan men were to be found in numbers at their club room by Arrigoni's. The scene was a lively one, calculated to please an outsider considerably, and particularly interesting to the partisans who joined the one or the other of the grand demonstrations of the evening. Our Democratic-proslavery-sympathizing-rebellion neighbors were on the qui vive decidedly. We don't care to detract a bit from their numbers, their enthusiasm, the loud reports of their [illegible] or even the booming up of their bonfires. The fact is we overdid them so largely that we can afford to be liberal-minded. We listened for a while to Judge Strong, but left just as he was declaring there was only one office in the Nation he aspired to, and that G. B. McClellan would be elected to fill before to-morrow night—in a horn, William. The boys were disposed to sneer at the not over-numerous procession, that with some two hundred torches left the Pioneer and marched around the town to the music of the band. The truth was that the great majority of our side declined to wade through the mud of our streets, but long before the column reached the Theatre, that building was more than comfortably filled, and soon there was not a standing place vacant, and even behind the scenes were gathered all that could find standing room.

As the procession neared the Theatre it was greeted by a brilliant display of fire works, concluding with the words "Abe and Andy," which were beautifully represented.

Certainly never was such a crowd gathered there before, and many ladies lent the charm of their presence to grace the scene. Not less than seven hundred and fifty voters were present, more, we will venture to say than the Democracy can count votes in Multnomah to-morrow. As many as three hundred people left, unable to obtain admission to the Theatre. The enthusiasm was unbounded, and one of the completest hits, conceivable was made by the Glee Club, who were encored, and carried the audience by storm the second time.

While the crowd on Front street were being entertained by ribald oratory, and the low vulgarity peculiar to the McClellan Club roosts of our day, the listening hundreds that thronged the theatre were held spell-bound to the last, by the earnest words of men who roused to the core the sensibilities of all who hung upon their lips, and whose theme of our country and its wrongs by the rebellion, stirred a responsive chord in the souls of all who heard.

Mr. Pearne and Judge Williams did nobly, and they could not have had a more appreciative audience. The first reviewed at length the situation and was listened to with attention for full two hours. Judge Williams concluded with one of his happiest efforts, and we can justly feel proud of our two distinguished citizens and the services they have so ably rendered in the present campaign.

THREATS.—The great electioneering card of the bogus Democracy during the campaign now ending has been to threaten, or at least insinuate that in the event of Mr. Lincoln's election there would be war at home, among ourselves, in the Northern States.

It is true that recent investigations have developed an institution on the part of the Copperheads of Missouri, Illinois and Indiana, to rise and join "pap" Price in his invasion.

But Price has left Missouri with a flea in his ear and no Copperheads in his train. It is a pity, however, that he did not enlist all these men to spare in the three States, and all the other Northern States in fact, who were any ways inclined to favor his cause. They would do less harm South of us in Dixie, than among us, going around as they constantly do, deceiving many honest and unsuspicious people by the name of "Democracy" and the cry of peace.

We pretend to believe that if this part of the Democratic party were in their proper place, in the rebel armies, the great majority of the Democratic party would prove worthy of the name, and however they may differ with the Administration on minor points, would never advocate a dishonorable peace or humiliation before the slave power.

It seems to be an actual fact, that there are secret political organizations in Oregon, opposed to the Administration; there are mysterious hints of violence continually being made emanating from those known to figure in these societies, and they say that at Forest Grove they meet for nightly drill.

We have no fears that these threats will ever be fulfilled; no idea that the majority of the Democratic rank and file are rebels at heart, but in many instances their leaders are, and all we desire is to impress on the mind of every man who intends to vote for McClellan, that in so doing he will advance the interest of the Confederacy at home and abroad, and will certainly be found in very bad company at home.

A DRAFTED PRIEST DECLINES A SUBSTITUTE.—A beautiful example of Christian patriotism has been given by a Catholic priest in Detroit. The pious and beloved pastor of St. Patrick's Chapel, on Adelaide street, Father James Hennesy, was drafted in the drawing for the Sixth Ward. His many friends at once gathered around him, and preparations were made to get him a substitute. Father Hennesy said, "No, I cannot permit this. My country has called upon me for personal service, and I will have no other man go for me. I will take my own place in the army."

We know nothing grander in the history of the draft than this patriotic conduct. The determination of the conscientious and patriotic priest is fixed. Members of his congregation have in vain offered to go into the field for him. But his fine sense of duty to his country and to the law will not permit him to serve his country by substitution. A Detroit paper says the following of Father Hennesy:

"To those who know Father Hennesy intimately, how faithfully and tenderly he cares for the souls of his flock, what manly and patriotic advice he has given them as citizens, his unostentatious benevolence to the poor and sick, this great act of patriotic self-denial will not be surprising. There is no man in the city who has more personal friends than Father Hennesy, and while they may in some respects deplore his intention, thinking that he could do of more service at home in his ministration, they will yet feel that the example of his action will be of wide public benefit."

THEY ESPOUSE BENEDICT ARNOLD.—The Democrats of Terre Haute, Indiana, accepted Benedict Arnold as their brother, and his politics as their politics. At one of their meetings, "Hookerly and Mack [illegible] their McClellanism upon the crowd. Some Republicans, curious spectators, to fill up the [illegible] in the proceedings, roguishly called, "Washburne, Washburne!" Elihu mounted the vacant [illegible] box, holding in his hand a printed speech of the Indiana Copperhead, Dan Voorhees, made [illegible] which he had pinned an extract from an address of Benedict Arnold, after the discovery of his treason, to the soldiers of the Revolutionary Army, intended to excite them to revolt and to seduce them from their allegiance. "Democrats," said Washburne, "I hold in my hand a speech of Daniel Voorhees, will you hear me?"

"Yes, yes!"

Washburne read:

"Who among you dare speak or write while he [illegible] against the tyranny which has robbed you of your property, imprisoned your sons, dragged them to the field of battle, and is daily deluging your country with blood?"

"Democrats, is not that a good speech?" asked Washburne.

"Oh, yes, if you say so. But I am not reading Dan Voorhees' speech—I am reading the speech of Benedict Arnold, the traitor. Do you indorse it?" "Yes!" "No!" "No!" "Yes!" and a Democratic Babel broke loose, above which roared the laughter of Republicans.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to November 5.

[illegible] — A private dispatch from [illegible] 28th Nov. [illegible] a hard fight occurred near Newtonia between our forces and Price. The latter was well whipped. Our troops held the field, while the rebels were retreating towards Arkansas. [illegible]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Times' special says: Solicitor Whiting states that, on the 1st of October there had been received under the last call [illegible] 12,[illegible] volunteers. He had been informed by reliable authority that the last draft would furnish all the men needed in this war.

The Tribune's special says: Lieut. Col. Murphy, of the [illegible] New York heavy artillery, [illegible] a large number of soldiers' [illegible] purporting to have been sworn to before him and bearing his name, were forgeries. [illegible] makes [illegible] officer whose name has been forged in Col. North's office.

BUFFALO, Nov. 5.—Evidence through friendly Canadians of the intention of the raid on Buffalo have been received to the effect that [illegible] had gradually arrived during the week and were to fire the city by means of the Greek fire, then murder and pillage. The authorities were [illegible] ready for them. They swear they will have [illegible].

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Chas. Windsor, [illegible] paying teller of the Mercantile Bank of this place, disappeared last Saturday. On examination of his cash account he was found to be a defaulter to the amount of $20,700 currency and $[illegible],000 gold. A reward of $2,000 for his arrest and $15,000 for the recovery of the money is offered.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Times' special says Terry was convicted and sentenced to State's Prison for life. While on trial he made a formal confession, and is now disposed to be more communicative. He says he had been for some time before his arrest sick of the business and was only waiting to receive replies to letters addressed by him to Peter Cagger and other prominent Democratic politicians of New York, which would prove their complicity beyond peradventure, when he intended to act fairly and make a complete expose of the whole thing. That if the arrest of himself and confinement had been postponed another week, he would have been able to have fixed the guilt of the whole transaction [illegible] it, the position where it properly belongs.

This morning Capt. Haynes of the [illegible] Infantry arrived here from the front having in charge [illegible] Col. Murphy, of the 27th New York artillery, who it is stated is implicated in election frauds, by signing blanks. Murphy was arrested by order of the Secretary of War and was taken to the Old Capitol prison to await investigation.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—A Nashville letter dated Nov. 2d says: Hood's army is now on the North side of the Tennessee. It is estimated his force is [illegible],000 men all armed, 61 pieces of artillery, mostly [illegible] and 12-pounders. He effected a crossing of the river at Cypress creek, 2½ miles below Florence, Ala., which point was better suited than any along the river for the purpose. As yet there are no developments of his situation, at least nothing that will throw light upon Hood's movements. He has no supplies save such as he collects in the country as he proceeds. The latter adds that ample preparations are being made to receive him, and he will be overwhelmed before he knows it. The well informed St. Louis correspondent of the [illegible] says: What Price accomplished during his raid may be summed up thus. He received 2,000 recruits and the same number of conscripts, captured 15,000 stand of arms, paroled 20,000 prisoners and destroyed $500,000 worth of property.

On the other hand he lost 3,000 men in battle, besides many hundreds of deserters, 4 pieces of artillery, 120 wagons, with their supplies, and several thousands of small arms. He carried but little out of the State, except a number of horses and a [illegible] of clothing upon the backs of his thronging followers. His raid has caused more damage to the people than benefit to the rebellion.

Another correspondent says:

I have been in the wake of the deliverers, as Price's advance was called, and can't find an instance where private property was respected; age and sex were disregarded, women were ravished, negroes murdered and white men were torn from their homes and forced to take the rebel cause. In many instances boys of fourteen years were conscripted.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—A Chattanooga letter dated the 30th, says: The 4th corps is just leaving for Huntsville.

Gen. Thomas' corps is in the neighborhood of Nashville, and the 14th, 17th and 23d corps are on the move.

Southern Oregon News.

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 7, 9 P. M.—There was a great demonstration here to-day, both Union and Democratic. Both had speeches this afternoon, torchlight processions and fireworks to-night. It is the largest assemblage of people that ever was witnessed in Southern Oregon.

SUBSTITUTES FOR DEMOCRATIC POLITICIANS.—The canvass in Indiana between Governor Morton and his competitor sweeps with dramatic interest to a Union victory. Side by side the McClellan and the Republican candidates argue the causes of their respective parties to the jury of the whole State, and the august inquest prepares its verdict with tokens of feeling which the political jury box does not hide. At a joint meeting in Crawfordsville—McDonald's own residence—last week, Morton overwhelmed the Democratic candidate for Governor. In reply to a portion of the speech of the latter, in which his righteous soul had expressed a counterfeit anxiety to know what was to be done with the negroes freed by the President's proclamation, Governor Morton said:

"The gentleman is greatly troubled about free negroes; he need give himself no uneasiness. They are going into the army at the rate of thousands every week, as substitutes for Democratic politicians, and I understand that those politicians are exceedingly well represented by them."

The reporter of the meeting says that at this [illegible] the crowd roared, and [illegible] McDonald, discomforted Copperhead, sat with his eyes [illegible] attempting to shut out the light, [illegible] Chicago platform [illegible] throw shells at a gunboat.

Morton, in the opening speech, had charged the managers of the Chicago Convention with having carefully kept out of their platform denunciation of the rebellion and censure of the rebels. McDonald's reply was, that denunciation would have done no good, and that he was "opposed on principle to dealing in bitterness and denunciation." The reporter of the meeting writes:

"On this point, Morton, in his closing half hour, planted a lick between Joseph's eyes that doubtless made him too blind to see the fly any longer, and it in all probability escaped unharmed. 'The gentleman,' said the Governor, 'has great charity for Jeff. Davis and his rebel minions who are attempting to destroy the nation; he is opposed to denouncing them because it will do no good, etc. [illegible] can he [illegible] the boundary of his charity [illegible] Lincoln and the people of the North? [illegible] his charity is so great he cannot denounce the [illegible] of his country, how is it he [illegible] so many bitter denunciations to heap [illegible] who [illegible] attempting to snatch it from the jaws of [illegible]?' At this the crowd [illegible] 'Hit him again! [illegible]' And the doughty Governor [illegible] half an hour, at the close of which some one proposed three cheers for Governor Morton, and they were given [illegible]. Nobody [illegible] for McDonald, and that, [illegible] humiliating enough. He left the stand [illegible] the worst whipped man [illegible] a public [illegible]

[illegible] all humors and impurities, we assert with [illegible]

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitations. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them, once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. New York Gold Quotations.................. [illegible]

AN INSULT TO THE FLAG.—About 1 o'clock A. M. yesterday, as Officer Donahue was going the rounds of his beat in this city, his attention was directed by a peculiar sound on Front street, in the vicinity of the McClellan Club Rooms. He discovered a person running off, and cried "Stop!" which was not heeded after a second or third calling, when he was sufficiently satisfied the proceeding was "foul," and fired a shot after the runaway. The true state of things were presented to his vision as he came up to the locality, and discovered that the large American flag, suspended over the street at that place, had been torn into shreds. Instant chase was given for the perpetrator of the outrage, and a man by the name of Ed. Gibson tracked up and arrested. The prisoner was brought before Recorder McCoy on the charge yesterday morning, and held over for trial Wednesday. We forbear any comment on the case, as the offense is of a very serious nature, and should there be no conviction the person so charged would be disgraced without cause.

PRESERVE THE PEACE.—The canvass which is to culminate to-day has raised many dissensions in the ranks of the people, and much bitter animosity ex[illegible] between partisans, but we are loth to believe [illegible] will so far overstep the rules of propriety in the advocacy of their given rights to suggest the policy or principles of their choice as to incite a riot, and create discord in this city. It has been [illegible] that a row was premeditated, and the officers of the city have been required to use extra exertions for the preservation of the peace, which may [illegible] right and proper, but we have no idea their [illegible] duties will be made necessary by any result, [illegible] hope not.

BRONKIE JACK ARRESTED.—Bronkie Jack, one of the persons who committed the robbery of Ben. Holladay's Coach last summer, between the Boise [illegible] and Salt Lake City, has been arrested by the [illegible] at Victoria, and is now held in that city for a proper requisition from the Governor of Idaho. [illegible] was in this vicinity a short time, and [illegible] pretty "flush" of money, but being suspected, [illegible] probably informed of what the officers were at, [illegible] made his escape down the river in a small boat, [illegible] to Victoria. His arrest has been accomplished [illegible] through the exertions of Sheriff Stated [illegible] this city, and it is hoped the prisoner may be [illegible] delivered at Lewiston.

A MAJESTIC BIRD.—For several weeks past a [illegible] bird, of the Grey Eagle species, has had the [illegible] of a large lot adjoining the Oregon Salt [illegible] in this city, and attracted much attention [illegible] outsiders. It was captured in the vicinity of [illegible], by having one of its wings disabled, and [illegible] entrusted to the keeping of Mr. Douglas, the [illegible], for the Bay View Park, at San Francisco. The bird has become quite tractable to its [illegible], but on the approach of a stranger perches [illegible] high as possible, and prepares for defense in case of such intrusion. Several amusing incidents [illegible] related of the prowess of this bird, and one of [illegible] citizens has received positive demonstrations to [illegible] fact that its talons will penetrate a good article [illegible] of skin, even after it has been manufactured [illegible].

RECORDER'S COURT.—The following cases were disposed of before Recorder McCoy yesterday morning, at his usual levee: For violent, and riotous conduct—John Lawson, fined $10 and costs, in default four days in jail. James Woody, fined $15 and costs, in default five days in jail—both parties [illegible] committed. John Frank was arraigned on [illegible] specifications, violations of City and State [illegible] in conducting himself in a violent and riotous manner—the latter was dismissed, and the former [illegible] imposed by a fine of $15 and costs, which was [illegible]. John Jackson waived an examination and [illegible] committed to await the sitting of Grand Jury [illegible] default of $500 bail.

[illegible] MEDICAL FIRM.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Dr. W. H. [illegible], Surgeon of the 1st regiment of Oregon [illegible], has returned to this city to resume the [illegible] of his profession. He studied medicine [illegible] of the Professors of the Medical College at [illegible], when he graduated. After receiving his [illegible] he visited the Hospitals of New York city [illegible] attended a course of lectures at the New York [illegible] and Ear Infirmary. He has formed a partnership with Dr. Chapman, one of our most successful [illegible], and deserves the confidence of the public [illegible] share of patronage.

THE GLEE CLUB.—Our patriotic cause is much [illegible] to the efforts of the Glee Club, for the [illegible] of enthusiasm they have kindled at the evening [illegible] rallys. Many have cause to remember the Glee [illegible] and its excellent leader, Mr. Wyatt. May [illegible] continue to sing their loyal pieces, until the [illegible] struggle for Liberty and Independence crowns [illegible] Nation once more.

[illegible] OF A TREE.—A little distance East [illegible] Academy, in this city, within a fenced block, [illegible] stands a large stump some twenty feet high. [illegible] the immediate top of this grows thriftily a [illegible] fir tree, that has a modest look, for all it is [illegible] in the world. When the stump decays we [illegible] that in all probability the aspiring fir will [illegible] with a rather sudden "change of base."

HALLIARDS REPAIRED.—The winds recently bore [illegible] flag and halliards from the flag staff of Vigilance [illegible] and Ladder Company's house in this city, and [illegible] in such cases the perplexity arose as to [illegible] the ropes should be put back to their proper [illegible]. This was finally accomplished yesterday by [illegible] three of their ladders, which were placed [illegible], and ascended by a man who did the work.

ADMITTED TO CITIZENSHIP.—The following named [illegible] were yesterday admitted to citizenship in [illegible] County Court, upon the testimony of sworn witnesses: Barnard O'Hara, W. P. Dwyer, Terence [illegible], Philip Wyman, Adolph Mundt, Walter [illegible], Benjamin Thornally, W. R. Wallace, M. [illegible], Adam Strander, Charles King.

NEW RECRUITS.—Seven more volunteers offered themselves at the recruiting office in this city yesterday, six of whom passed examination and were accepted. At the rate men are offered Captain Powell [illegible] will very soon fill his Company to the minimum [illegible], and be mustered into the service.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—Mr. Potter returned to [illegible] city yesterday evening, after a short visit to Vancouver, and his Dramatic Company will appear [illegible] the Willamette Theatre again to-night.

THE CITY POLICE.—Sixty-five effective men have [illegible] detailed for extra, or special police duty in the [illegible], to-day.

ILLEGAL VOTERS.—Let every Union man guard [illegible] polls well to see that not a single illegal vote [illegible] cast.

There are many in town who were voters and [illegible] vote at Idaho last month, and who may if [illegible] permitted vote here again to-day.

Hold them square to it, don't fear to challenge, [illegible] let no Union man complain of being challenged, [illegible] comply with the laws in every respect.

A GUITAR FOR McCLELLAN.—The Active says Brigadier-General Guitar has come out for McClellan, and in another place quotes a "German organ" [illegible] severely handling Mr. Lincoln. With a guitar [illegible] and an organ to help them on they are in big luck. [illegible] we never heard of General Guitar before. What has he ever done?

A PRETTY BIG TREASURE LOAD.—An English journal of the 3d of September says:

On Tuesday afternoon much curiosity was excited [illegible] the vicinity of the Bank of England by the arrival of a long train of railway vans belonging to the Southwest Railway Company, each laden with boxes containing several tons of gold and silver bullion and specie, which had just arrived by the mail steamer Shannon at Southampton, from Mexico. Such was the quantity that it took nearly the entire afternoon to unload the vans and deposit the cases in the vaults of the Bank, the total value of the treasure being $7,343,112.

The first effect of a bad climate upon the human system is to produce torpor and inactivity of the liver, thereby preventing the natural discharge of bile. All know the lurking nature of the poison that produces Fever and Ague and its kindred diseases. A sallow complexion, capricious appetite, and occasional pain in the side, are often the only symptoms to warn of impending danger. The operation of Dr. [illegible]'s [illegible] is to counteract this malarial influence by producing activity of the biliary organs, and [illegible] from the system.

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution. Persons of a scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, fever diseases, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine. oct19-lm

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "Common Cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket, and taken as occasion requires.

Redington & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

For the complete Cure of Cough, Pains in the Chest, Difficulty of Breathing, and all other Lung Diseases which lead to Consumption, you will find that Allen's Lung Balsam is the most valuable remedy yet discovered; wherever it has been introduced, cures have been made, which have astonished every one who have witnessed its effects. Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The stomach is the fountain head of scores of diseases which infest the human system. Indigestion, bad enough per se, generates diarrhoea, dysentery, distress, vertigo, palpitation of the heart, general debility, &c. Get rid of them, at once, by going through a course of
DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.
A palatable and refreshing preparation, which surely relieves all complaints of the stomach and its dependencies, as the sun melts the snow. A course of the medicine may not perhaps be necessary. One bottle frequently accomplishes a complete cure.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. [illegible]

[illegible]
It's a very [illegible], Little Mac;
My platform [illegible]
[illegible]

I have [illegible]
I have trouble [illegible]
And [illegible]
[illegible]

"I'm for peace, Little Mac; [illegible]
[illegible]
If you get [illegible]
We can easily [illegible]

"Planks that are planks," [illegible]
"Are planks the only [illegible]
And a [illegible] soldier-like head
Will make all hostilities cease."

"Will you call to the crowd [illegible]
Will you call to the crowd, Little Mac?
Will you call to the minions that darken the East
And send them to Yankee-land back?

"Will you say to the hooks of old Lincoln the King—
Just say to the hooks, Little Mac—
They must stop all the war—for 'tis not the thing,
To win our friend [illegible] back?"

Then Little Mac looked at the buttons he wore,
And he gave all his buttons a look;
And the epaulettes that on his shoulder he bore,
And the sword at his side as it shook.

Then Little Mac leaned quite back in his chair,
With his feet on the table [illegible],
And he answered—"I reckon that you can prepare
Just such a nice platform for me!

"I'm a soldier, you know! I'm a soldier—a brave,
And can fix it just ready to suit;
You go for the platform—I will do well [illegible]
And I'll put a spur to my boot."

So Vallandigham Maximus brought out his tools,
For a builder of platforms was he,
And he chalked out a thing with his pencil and rule
That Jefferson gloried to see.

But Little Mac saw that it was hardly the thing
For a soldier so brave as he,
And he put on the spurs, and he gave it a fling
For the people who fell at his knees.

And the platform is there with its tottering planks,
And the soldier is there to-day;
May they both safely reach the moss-covered banks
Where the river is salt for aye!

THE COLLIER AND THE JUGGLER.—A professor of legerdemain was exhibiting in the neighborhood of a colliery in England, and after performing some tricks, asked the loan of a halfpenny. A collier handed him one, which the juggler shortly announced had been transformed into a sovereign, which he exhibited.

"An' is that my bawbee?" asked the astonished collier.

"Undoubtedly," was the reply.

"Let's see it, will 'ee?"

The request was complied with, and the collier, turning it round and round with admiration, at length put it in his pocket, exclaiming, "Now, I'se warrant ye'll no turn it into a bawbee again."

LEFT-HANDED IN BOTH EYES.—We heard, the other day, a good one of John Cheek, who always had his eyes cocked both ways for justice and perhaps for Sunday. It seems he had fined an Irishman, who having used too much of the crayther, was foolish enough to let the crayther use him. Pat, on leaving the office, met a friend, to whom he held forth—

"Be jabers, and I was fined, Martin."

"Ah! and who fined you now?"

"That's tellin' jist. 'Twas a mon in there who's either a justice of the peace, or a piece of justice, I don't know which; and he—he's left-handed in both eyes."

A Greenback Case.

HAVING been compelled to accept of Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with the contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such unfair advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

Proclamation.

STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
[illegible] 25th [illegible]

WHEREAS, I have received a requisition from Major General Irvin McDowell, commanding the Department of the Pacific, acting under the authority of the War Department, for one regiment of Infantry, in addition to the volunteers now in the service of the United States, to aid in the enforcement of the laws, suppress [illegible] invasion and to [illegible] hostile Indians in the [illegible] district.

Now, therefore, I, ADDISON C. GIBBS, Governor of the State of Oregon, and Commander-in-Chief of the militia thereof, do hereby call upon the citizens of this State to organize themselves into companies sufficient to fill the foregoing requisition.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed. Done at Salem the 25th day of October, A. D. 1864.

[L. S.] ADDISON C. GIBBS.
Governor of Oregon.

Attest: SAMUEL E. MAY, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated: The plan of recruiting and organizing the above force will be as follows until further notice:

RECRUITING.

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry, Oregon Volunteers. The field, staff and line officers will be commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts, according to the number of persons in each district liable to do military duty. When such district has furnished its quota of men there will be no draft in the same under this call. Each district will furnish one company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to company officers, conditioned that they shall recruit their respective companies, and be ready to be mustered into the service, within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established at some central point in each district, and, if practicable, all recruits will be retained there until the company is filled and ready to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest-bearing bonds, payable in gold to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 486.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, equipments, rations, and allowances, furnished by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 662.)

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates, minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated and paid as privates.

The following is the estimated

QUOTA OF MEN DUE FROM EACH COUNTY:

Jackson	55
Josephine	25
Curry	5
Douglas	50
Coose	12
Lane	84
Linn	100
Benton	41
Polk	40
Marion	98
Clackamas	49
Yamhill	46
Tillamook	3
Multnomah	122
Washington	48
Columbia	7
Clatsop	11
Wasco and Grant	20
Umatilla	35
Baker and Union	[illegible]

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with commendable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. Under it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of patriotism and of State local and personal pride requires that you commence promptly and prosecute vigorously the business of obtaining volunteers. The officers of the State feeling the most earnest desire that the entire State should avoid a draft, appeal to the patriotic citizens of your county through you who are their officers and legal and natural representatives. As guardians of their rights and of their honor it is incumbent upon you to respond to this appeal by earnest and successful work. Call to your aid the assistance of the active and influential citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and, if possible, induce him to realize that he has an immediate and personal interest in the success of your efforts. If necessary, call meetings in your school districts and bring the matter home to every inhabitant. Funds will be needed to pay expenses not provided for by law. Let subscriptions be circulated in each county for that purpose, and preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor, upon whom the requisition is made, expects, and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION.

Cleanse the Blood.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

BLOOD AND LIVER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, DYSPEPSIA,
BRONCHITIS, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and calculi of the Kidney, preventing gravel formations and enlargements of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the Bladder, dropsy, etc.

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, CROUP,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest or Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that IT IS WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.
